

Worth of Struggle and Revolution

One November day in 2021, the respected Comrade Kim Jong Un inspected the city of Samjiyon under construction, despite cold weather.

Feasting his eyes on new dwelling houses built in Phothae-dong on an observation site, he expressed great satisfaction, and asked an official about the old houses.

The official said all the old houses had been pulled down and the residents were provided with new ones.

Then, Kim Jong Un said: I am very satisfied to hear that the residents of Samjiyon are rejoicing at the change of the city, saying that they fully understood the meaning of the word “eye-opening transformation of the land”. Their opinion is precisely the general evaluation of the renovation project of the city. If they like it, it is good and, if not, it is bad. Making effort to bring about great changes of the world is precisely a revolution. I feel the worth of struggle and revolution in working day and night for the people. I am most pleased when I see the smiling faces of the people.

Listening to what he had to say, officials were firmly determined to work as the true servants of the people, always keeping pace with him who is on an endless journey of devotion for the people.