Unstained Conscience Is Lifeblood

One November day in 2016, respected Comrade Kim Jong Un visited the Central Cadres Training School of the Workers' Party of Korea.

He met the teachers devoting their whole life silently to the education at the highest institution for training Party cadres and gave them meaningful instructions:

Party officials should cherish unstained conscience just like white gem that preserves its colour even if it is broken into pieces. I attach great importance to this. An unconscionable Party official, no matter how well-informed he may be, cannot devote himself for the Party, the leader, and the people, and will end up losing the eligibility for his job. Unstained conscience just like white gem is the lifeblood of a Party official.

The teachers made up their minds to bring up all the students as intended by him.
